Dear Parents & Carers,

As you are aware, we recently underwent an OFSTED inspection. The first since 2009 and our first under the new Ofsted framework, which was revised in 2019.

The process was rigorous and involved visits to classes, meetings with pupils, staff, parents and governors to allow the inspectors to gain a deep understanding of our school. The children, staff and wider school community excelled during the two-day visit and, through their collective excellence, passion and a huge amount of hard work, really managed to demonstrate and convey what makes All Cannings so special.

We are extremely proud to advise that we scored a resounding and very strong 'GOOD' result.

There is so much to celebrate and so many positives that the new short two-page document almost doesn't seem to do justice to both the process and the school. We have highlighted some of the key strengths and themes of the report and the full version is attached.

We would like to invite you to meet with staff and children on Wednesday 11th January 2023 at 6.15pm for an evening of celebration where we will expand upon the more detailed feedback we were given over the two days. You will be able to hear about our plans for the future and from children across the school, as they share their learning and successes. Full details will be sent out at the start of next term, but please keep the date free in your diary.

In the meantime, I hope that you will join me in recognising this collective achievement, after a particularly difficult few years both in school and across the country. I approach the Christmas holiday with a real sense of pride and would just like to thank the children, staff, parents, governors and EQUA for all we have achieved.

Best wishes,

Richard Borman
